Basketball is a family-oriented sport, and the West Sydney Wolves Basketball Association (WSWBA) conducts local competitions primarily to promote enjoyment, fitness, teamwork, sportsmanship, and community spirit. All participants are expected to adhere to the spirit of the rules, with fun and recreation as the primary goals, rather than a win-at-all-costs mentality.

1.2. Interpretation of the By-Laws

In line with the above, WSWBA reserves the right to make decisions that reflect the intention of the WSWBA Competition By-Laws (By-Laws), even if those decisions differ from a literal interpretation of the rules.

WSWBA maintains a Zero Tolerance Policy regarding:

- I. Persistent and/or willful challenging of referees' decisions
- II. Abuse of referees, players, officials, or spectators
- III. Violence against players, officials, or spectators

A competition may be defined by one or more of the following:

- I. Age group
- II. Division
- III. Day of Competition
- IV. Gender (e.g., Girls, Boys, Men's, Women's, Mixed, etc.)

6.6. Numbering on Jerseys

A distinct number (one or two digits, 00, 0 through 99) must be clearly displayed on both the front and back of the playing top. The numbers must be legible, contrast with the uniform, and be fixed to the uniform. Taped or pinned numbers are not considered acceptable.
